

Sawaal-Jawaab Conversations on Science

Clone Wars: the Science behind the Stem Cell Debate

What is cloning? And what are stem cells? Come and learn about new technologies for producing genetically identical individuals and cells. In addition to their enormous therapeutic potential, these technologies also bring a host of new social and ethical questions as they challenge our notions of regeneration and reproduction.

Discussion leader: Prof. D. Balasubramanian, Padma Shri, is Director of Research at L.V. Prasad Eye Institute in Hyderabad. He is also known for his work as a popularizer of science, including a long-running column in The Hindu, "Speaking of Science".
