NATURALLY, Tread Softly on the Planet

Vikram Soni

Centre for Theoretical Physics, Jamia Millia
Islamia, New Delhi

Prof. Vikram Soni will be talking about his recent book "NATURALLY - Tread Softly on the Planet". It is about evolution of life – the only life we know. It is also about human conduct – especially over the last 200 years, science and the technology it has spawned. It is about the ethos of the living planet. It is about being at a boggling and critical crossroad in the present times. But, finally it is about working out a scheme of living that can endure.
